

HOME TOUR: Christophe Nicolas-Biot's Paris apartment

The celebrity French hairdresser take us out of the salon, and into his private digs.

words: Robin Hodes

photos: Didier Delmas

But while his hair salons – and the nature of the work done there – allow for endless creative expression, it's at home where Nicolas-Biot's personal design aesthetic is able to shine. "My house is filled with personal things, memories, and Art Déco that I would not necessarily put in my salons," he says.

*The living room exudes Nicolas-Biot's personal vibe... in no small part because he hand-selected it all himself. sofa by AM.PM.; Falcon Chair by Sigurd Ressel at gallery KRD chair by ; tufted pouf from Made accent table, console, and coffee table from Flamant; rug by Sacha Walckhoff for Yo2; candle from Missoni Home; decorative "insect" objets by Hamilton Conte; "Reverso" Vase by Sacha Walckhoff for Verreum; art photo: Jonathan Bermudes